

*In honor of Human Rights Day,
join us for an exploration of*

HUMAN RIGHTS in 2005

- Reading and response to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (adopted December, 1948)
- Street Theatre
  - Songs by the Raging Grannies

in front of First Churches of Northampton 129 Main St.
Saturday, December 17 Noon - 2PM

If ever there was a time in our land when we needed publicly to uphold human rights, now is that time. Stand with us against torture, “extraordinary renditions”, indefinite detention without trial, racism, neglect, deprivation and violation of rights of privacy and dissent.

SPONSORED BY: Greensboro Justice Fund; American Friends Service Committee; Amnesty International Group 76; Northampton Committee to Stop the War; American Civil Liberties Union of Massachusetts, Western Regional Office; Western MA Jobs with Justice; Pioneer Valley Interfaith Peace Coalition; Social Workers for Peace and Justice; Bill of Rights Defense Committee; Franklin/Hampshire Healthcare Coalition; Media Education Foundation; Northampton Friends Meeting; Rosenberg Fund for Children; Meadowbrook Tenants Association.

For more information please call: 413-584-1079 or 413-584-8975